50X1-HUM

1. The reorganization of the Yugoslav Armed Forces, under way since the spring of 1964, involves the suppression of several military commands, establishing of new ones, and the reduction in the length of required military service.
2. Under the jurisdiction of the Fourth Army District, Split, are military districts, to which are subordinate infantry divisions, landing infantry corps, coastal defense positions, etc. Now military sectors, replacing several deactivated commands, and directly subordinate to the military district commands have been set up in the following locations: Losinj Island, Zadar, Vis Island, Ploce, and Bar. The Zadar Military Sector is commanded by Colonel Jerko Supe, formerly commander of the Sibenik Landing Infantry Regiment--which is now commanded by Lt. Col. Milan Mladinovic. 50X1-HUM
3. All existing units are subordinate to the new military sectors, including those with reduced strength, deactivated units which retain only the commands, as well as the various warehouses and supply depots, landing infantry units, coastal defense units, etc.
4. The new commands are also responsible for the archives of the deactivated units and commands, and mobilization offices.
